

Summertime Arts FAQ

Q: Where are the classes?

A: Los Olivos Elementary School (2540 Alamo Pintado Ave, Los Olivos)

Q: How much are the classes?

A: A single morning or afternoon session costs $100. A full 9am-4pm day costs $200.

Q: Is there a discount for having more than one child enrolled?

A: There is a 10% sibling discount for siblings enrolled in the same session during the same week. To sign up with the discount, please call Arts Outreach at 805-688-9533 as you cannot get the discount online.

Q: Will my child be taking one or both of the classes in the morning session?

A: Both. Your child will take one of the classes for an hour and twenty minutes and then switch to the next class.

Q: Can my child take just one of the classes in the morning session?

A: No, all children enrolled in a session will take both classes.

Q: Will there be breaks?

A: Yes. There will be a twenty-minute break during both the morning and the afternoon sessions, as well as an hour lunch for those children staying all day.

Q: Will the breaks be supervised?

A: Yes, both the in-session breaks and the lunch will be supervised.

Q: What should my child bring?

A: Closed-toed shoes, water, and a snack for each session (morning and afternoon). If your child is staying all day, they should also bring a lunch.

Q: Can my child stay for lunch if they are not enrolled all day?

A: Yes. Arts Outreach will provide lunch time childcare for $5 each day you choose to leave your child. NOTE: children who are enrolled for the full day do not have to pay extra for lunchtime care.
